CONCLUSION OF THE ROSECRANZ CONFERENCE—CORRESPONDENCE ON THE STATE OF THE SOUTH—GENERAL LEE'S VIEWS—THE LETTERS WITHHELD FOR THE PRESENT—THEIR SUBSTANCE—PREPARATIONS FOR THE FANCY BALL, &c. &c.

Correspondence of the Richmond Whig.

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, Aug. 27.

Well, the conference between General Rosecranz and Generals Lee and Beauregard, Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, Governor Pickens, of South Carolina, Mr. Conrad, of Louisiana, A. H. H. Stuart, Gov. Letcher, Jere Morton, Governor Stockdale, of Texas, General Echols and others, which has been in progress since last Saturday, reached a conclusion this morning, when a statement to be laid before the people of the North was agreed upon and signed by the parties above mentioned. It was not deemed advisable by General Rosecranz to allow the press to have copies of it in advance of its formal publication by him, though correspondents were importunate as the widow of the Scriptures. He left with it by the eleven o'clock stage, and will proceed at once northward. I have been able to gather an outline, however, of its contents.

A LETTER FROM GENERAL ROSECRANZ TO GEN. LEE.

The paper consists first of a letter addressed by General Rosecranz to General Lee and others, in which he states that he came here of his own accord, in the interest of his country, to get from the Confederate leaders in the late war, in whom the North knows the South has perfect confidence, a full expression of their views upon the political questions of the day, and he hoped and expected it would be such a one as would materially aid the reconstruction of our common country upon a basis of permanent peace and prosperity. In this letter, which breathes patriotism in every line, as I am informed, he propounded sundry inquiries to General Lee, among which were whether we can hope for any permanent peace and prosperity under the present Congressional plan of reconstruction, which surrenders to the control of negroes and a few whites nearly all of the Southern States? Whether, if the whites were all enfranchised and given the control of the South, they would treat the negroes justly and kindly? The whole object of the letter was to procure such a statement of the feeling and temper of the Southern people towards the Government, the negroes, &c., as I foreshadowed in my letter, which, though written on Saturday last, was a full report of the proceedings of the conference up to the hour the paper was agreed upon.

General Rosecranz requested General Lee to confer with other leading Southern Generals and civilians, and obtain their views in connection with his own.

GENERAL LEE'S REPLY.

A careful, well digested, I need not say truthful statement, because Robert E. Lee's sign manual was to it, was prepared and addressed to General Rosecranz in reply to his letter. As I have stated above, all the parties to the conference signed it, and others not here will do so before its publication.

It may not be uninteresting to know that after General Lee's name came that of Gen. Beauregard, and that the signature of Mr. Stephens, of Georgia, is the third on the list.

General Lee, in his reply, stated that he believes the people of the South sincerely desire peace and a restoration of the Union. He did not think it possible that the country could prosper while the control and management of the governments of the States of the South remained in the hands of negroes and a few whites, and the mass of the men representing her intelligence are disfranchised.

He believed if the whites of the South were relieved of all political disabilities, and thereby given ascendancy, that they would, if left to themselves, treat the negroes with kindness, forbearance and justice. The Southern people, in his opinion, regard the questions of slavery and secession as settled finally by the war, and they have no disposition or inclination to re-establish the one or to again try the other. It is the unanimous wish, says General Lee, of the Southern people, that we shall have lasting peace. They long for it. The people of the South have the greatest interest in having a good and stable government that will protect them in their rights and their property, under which they may go to work properly, and with confidence that whatever they may accumulate by their labor may be secure for themselves and children.

The reply covers five pages, and re-asserts substantially the declarations of the Conservative Conventions of the South. The gentlemen here, like Judge Gholson, who have watched the progress of this conference from its inception to its gratifying conclusion, are very hopeful that much good will result from its action.

LETTER FROM WASHINGTON.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

September Session of Congress—Presidential Campaign—Mrs. Surratt's Execution—Political News.

The radicals are daily becoming more and more clamorous for a September session of Congress. Some of the latest reasons urged are that Governor Brownlow's life is constantly threatened in Tennessee; that Kentucky resounds with threats; that Alabama is literally in a state of siege, and that Georgia and South Carolina are overrun by madmen who are endeavoring to plunge those States into a new revolution.

It will be observed that all these States are in the Union, and have representatives in Congress. Kentucky never seceded.—The other States named were kept out of the Union by the radical Congress, but having been "reconstructed" and readmitted, are again sovereign States, as much so as Ohio, Pennsylvania or Massachusetts.—The question therefore naturally arises, what can Congress do with these States if it does meet, or how can it remedy the evils complained of, and which are in the main imaginary? Will it repeal its own laws declaring these States entitled to representation, because, forsooth, the carpet-baggers cannot control them? Mississippi, Virginia and Texas are unreconstructed. All the rest have votes for Presidential Electors. If Congress meets it will be to devise means to carry the Presidential election for the Radicals, and its assembly for this purpose will be a tacit acknowledgment of weakness at the North and absolute dependence upon further manipulation at the South.

General David Hunter, the president of the military commission that tried and convicted Mrs. Surratt, is out in a card this morning, denying the statement first made in radical papers that he had refused to sign the application of the pardon of Mrs. Surratt. He says in his card that he has "always looked with utter contempt on the execution of the poor woman." Thus, one by one, the members of this court are trying to get away from responsibility in this case. Mr. Bingham, the judge advocate of the court, says he prepared the petition for pardon, and added that every member of the court, with one exception, signed it. That exception, the radical papers said was Gen. Hunter, and now the latter not only denies it, but says he "looked with utter contempt upon the execution of the poor woman." Can the members of the court explain why it was then that Mrs. Surratt was pronounced equally guilty and deserving of death with Paine, Harold and Atzerodt? Why was she pronounced one of the chief criminals, instead of being placed in the category with O'Loughlin and Mudd, who were not adjudged guilty of offenses deserving of death? It is rather late in the day for the members of the court to attempt to escape from the responsibility of Mrs. Surratt's hasty execution.

A letter received here from Hon. D. W. Voorhees says the democracy of Indiana is full of courage, hope and confidence, and there seems to be no doubt but that the State will give a handsome majority for Seymour and Blair. Nor does there seem to be a doubt of Mr. Hendricks's election as Governor. Senator Doolittle has written a letter here, expressing his opinion that Wisconsin is certain for Seymour and Blair.

COLUMBIAN COLLEGE, WASHINGTON, D. C.
THE SESSIONS OF THE SEVERAL Departments open as follows:
The PREPARATORY, September 9th; the COLLEGIATE, September 23rd; the THEOLOGICAL, October 7th; the LAW, October 14th; and the MEDICAL, October 19th.
This College was organized with a reference to the oft urged suggestion of WASHINGTON, that a University, at the Federal Metropolis, would tend to the "assimilation of the principles, opinions and manners of our countrymen, by the common education of a portion of its youth from every quarter." Its graduates have verified the expectations of Madison and Monroe, that the facilities of hearing debates in Congress, arguments in the Supreme Court and Lectures from eminent men, and of visiting Libraries and Collections in Science, gathered at this centre, would foster a comprehensive mental development.
The Preparatory School gives a thorough training for business, and preparation for College. The College proper has eight efficient Professors; all the Chairs being filled. The Theological school has three Professors and Lecturers; the Law School four, and the Medical ten. The expenses are as low as at other Colleges.—Number of students the past year, 431. VEGETABLE PILE OINTMENT.
TO THE PUBLIC.
For 25 Years I was sorely afflicted with the Piles. After trying every remedy I could hear of and failing to receive any benefit, in 1857, I discovered a remedy, purely vegetable, which effected an entire cure and I have had no return of it.
Anxious to relieve the afflicted and to promote my own benefit, I made public my discovery and had the gratification to know that my remedy cured a large number of persons. My ointment was advertised in the public prints and I met with great success, until the war came on.
By the advice of friends, I have determined again to manufacture the OINTMENT and offer it for sale. Any number of certificates of its value could be obtained if necessary.
Price of box $1, and postage, (fifteen cents.) As soon as I can make arrangements, I will put it in the hands of the druggists of the State.

THE NEW MILITIA.

"Gov." Holden is organizing the Militia, under the unconstitutional law passed by the recent Legislature. His "Adjutant General," one A. W. Fisher, who, we learn, is a new comer, better known as a carpet bagger, has entered upon his duties. One of his "Major Generals" is also a carpet-bagger,—one Martindale.

That part of the law, which simply confines itself to organizing the ordinary Militia of the State, we do not deem unconstitutional, when ordered by a general law of Congress, but the proposition of the bulk of the bill, to accept, organize, arm and equip a "detailed Militia" is palpably in violation of the Constitution.

Our Washington telegram, of yesterday morning, asserts that the President takes ground that the Constitution of the United States forbids the maintenance of standing armies in any State. He, moreover, seems to consider that the act of Congress, passed in 1865, dislodging and forbidding the organization of the Militia or a volunteer force in the late "rebel" States, is absolutely binding at present upon the South.

"Gov." Holden, it is understood, contends that the State, having been admitted by Congress as a co-equal State, can do whatever other States can do, and, therefore, can organize the Militia for its own defence and protection. But if "Gov." Holden will take the pains to examine the Constitution of the United States, he will find that "no State shall * * * keep troops or ships of war in time of peace," and that the organizing, arming and disciplining the Militia is a right of Congress, and for which it must provide by law. In time of war, invasion or insurrection, &c., the President is the Commander-in-Chief of the Militia called into service. The power of the State and her Executive officers over the Militia seems to be confined to the simple purpose of enforcing the civil law and the preservation of peace and order, when the civil power cannot do it, yet it would seem that the Militia cannot be organized, except under a law of Congress authorizing it.

The design of the "Governor" and the Legislature, in passing the "Force bill," and then the "Detailed Militia" bill, is mischievous and incendiary. The pretence is, that the Conservatives and Democrats are disposed to interfere with the exercise of suffrage on the part of the "truly loil," and the Radicals pretend to believe that the opposition to them in the State design to subvert the bogus government by a resort to arms. Both of these pretended alarms are myths, without the shadow of foundation. No Conservative will interfere with the exercise of suffrage by any one. They will use no other than legitimate means to induce any one to vote with them. And as to the use of arms, in putting down the existing State government, no such idea enters their heads. They believe "in ballots, not bullets."

No military organization of the State is necessary. The ordinary processes of civil procedure are all that are needed to enforce law and preserve order. Any attempt to enforce them by the bayonet, in a time of peace, can only produce irritation and discontent and provoke disorder. The arrest of citizens, in time of peace, by military officers or privates, is so palpable a violation of the fundamental principles of civil liberty, that it will surely result in disaffection and discord. The civil arm is strong enough, and is the only arm which, under the Constitution, can arrest the evil doer, so long as general order prevails. The attempt, therefore, to organize a detailed Militia is not only unconstitutional and unlawful, but is a promoter of discord and is so designed. No smooth pretences or declarations of its peace character can satisfy the people. All over the State, the people express strong opposition to the whole scheme, because of its bad effect upon the popular mind, and because of the enormous and unnecessary expense and burden upon our impoverished people.

But the new Militia law is not only in violation of the Constitution of the United States, but it violates the new Constitution of the State, which "Gov." Holden, and every member of the Legislature, swore to support. The 24th. Section of Article 1st. of the new Constitution reads thus:

"A well regulated Militia being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed; and as standing armies, in time of peace, are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be kept up, and the military should be kept under strict subordination to, and governed by, the civil power."

RADICAL LOVE FOR THE NEGRO.

The Star, a leading Radical organ, paid for at the cost of government, has a statement that leading "Republicans" are not only discussing the necessity of a re-assembling of Congress, on the 21st. inst., but, also, of passing an act preventing all the reconstructed States from voting for Presidential electors in November. How Congress can effect this, after admitting the States to representation, is not explained, nor have we any idea that a majority can be brought to attempt this great outrage; but the fact that "leading Republicans" are "discussing the necessity" of such a proceeding is full of grave significance.

That it may become "necessary," in Radical estimation, to prevent the reconstructed States, if possible, from voting for Presidential electors, can only be attributable to their well founded apprehension that the negroes, in sufficient numbers, will vote for Seymour and Blair, and with the true white men of the South, to carry these States, or a majority of them, against Grant. It is evident that, if they become a little more fearful of such a contingency, they will not hesitate to deprive the negroes of the privilege of voting at all, as foreshadowed in the article of the Star. Whenever the Radical party find that they cannot use the negroes, as they have been doing heretofore, they will "whistle them down the wind" without ceremony.

A signal illustration of this fact is now transpiring in Georgia. The Radicals, headed by Chief Justice Joe Brown, and seconded by "Gov." Bullock, are endeavoring to unseat the negro members of the Legislature of that State and to declare colored men ineligible to office. They are very indignant at this betrayal, in the house of their pretended friends, and the certain consequence is that Georgia, with their help, will go overwhelmingly for the National Democratic ticket.

It would be well for the colored men in North Carolina to take note of these things. We venture the prediction, that, in the course of the next year or two, they will find the Radical party in North Carolina the open and bitter enemies of their political privileges.

MASS MEETING AT MONROE.—We learn, from the Charlotte Times, that the Democratic and Conservative Mass Meeting, at Monroe, Union County, on Thursday last, was attended by at least 1,000 persons,—a number of fair ladies, also, gracing the meeting with their presence.

The people were addressed by Messrs. D. A. Covington, H. C. Jones and R. P. Waring, and telling speeches were made by several colored orators.

A procession, with music and banners, was formed, and one of the features of the enthusiastic occasion was a choir of young ladies and gentlemen, who sang soul stirring campaign songs. The Times says:

"A great change is going on in Union County. Col. Walkup, Capt. C. M. T. McAuley, Col. Austin and Majors Covington, Wyatt, and others, are working hard and faithfully in the good cause and the effects are visible in every neighborhood. Maj. Wyatt was up at Cureton last week and organized a club. Forty five names were promptly signed—while at the last election only four votes were cast for the Conservatives at that box. Very nearly the same result was attained by Col. Walkup during the past week down at the Gold Mine.

Col. Austin has also been on the stump with the best results. Seymour will carry that county by at least 200 majority. These gentlemen deserve the greatest credit for the ability and success with which they are conducting the canvass. The other counties in the District must be up and doing, or Union will be the banner county."

HON. NAT. BOYDEN.—We understand that the Hon. Nat. Boyden, one of the members from this State, and whose voice was recently raised against the arming of the negroes of the South, has come out in the Standard in a letter advocating the cause of Grant and Colfax.—Roanoke News.

Our cotemporary is mistaken. We have heard of that letter, for some time, which would appear in the Standard, but it is not yet forth coming. Mr. Boyden is a very strong anti war man, as every one knows; he can hardly, therefore, swallow Grant and Colfax. But his knees have been very shaky ever since he read Frank Blair's letter. We hope he will be as fast by the time the District Convention meets at Statesville; otherwise, the Conservatives and Democrats of that District will select an out and out Seymour and Blair man, to bear their banner. Seymour and Blair men cannot follow in the lead of any doubtful or undecided men.

CIVIL CODE OF PROCEDURE.—Our friends are writing us for copies of the "Civil Code of Procedure." We hear that it will make a volume of over 200 pages, and that the printer is hard at work, getting it out.—How it is to be distributed, or how copies are to be obtained, after they are printed, has not been announced. In the meantime, the Courts are being held, and the lawyers need them. As soon as they are to be had, we have proposed to let the public know.

MASS MEETING AT ROXBORO'—PERSON ALIVE.—The Democrats and Conservatives of Person had a splendid success, on Thursday last, in the way of a mass meeting.—The Hon. William A. Graham and Henry K. Nash, Esq., spoke to the largest crowd that has been gathered for a political discussion in that county since the war.

There are now ten Seymour and Blair Clubs organized in Person.

THE DEMOCRATIC Club of Wilmington have organized a Brass Band.

THE WESTERN EXTENSION RAIL ROAD.

The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Western N. C. (Extension) Rail Road was held at Statesville, on Thursday last. The reports of the President and Treasurer made a favorable exhibit of the operations of the Road, under the untoward circumstances of the times, for the last year.

"Lieut. Gov." Tod R. Caldwell, Daddy Cowles, and Gen. Littlefield, the State proxy, were early on the ground. Mr. Cowles had come in post haste from Connecticut to seize upon the spoils of the Presidency of the Road. Unfortunately for that dignitary, sundry complications defeated his aspirations.

A pretty full representation of the stock was present. Judge Merrimon was called to the Chair. The individual Stockholders were fully impressed with the dangers to the success of the Road, if any serious changes were effected at the present time.—This they were determined to prevent, if possible.

We learn that the following officers were elected for the ensuing year, viz: Dr. J. J. Mott, President; Col. S. McD. Tate, Superintendent and Financial Agent; Maj. Allison, Chief Engineer; and R. F. Simonton, Secretary and Treasurer. The Directors elected on the part of the Stockholders are Messrs. Jno. McDowell, S. McD. Tate, Z. B Vance and A. S. Merrimon.

This arrangement is a creditable one and will doubtless promote the interests of the Road. It did not, however, suit the purposes of the Radicals. They were fairly beaten. Tod and Mr. Cowles were in no good humor, we learn. We hear that Mr. Cowles assailed his friend Gen. Littlefield severely, for having sold the State to the "rebels," which the General retorted upon in no very pious terms. Mr. C. threatened to tell Pa, but Gen. Littlefield thought he was as sure of foot as Daddy Cowles, and so both came back, we imagine, in a pucker. "Hush! hush!" the Head Centre will exclaim; "my children must not fall out by the way, for how can we walk together, unless we be agreed! Hush, boys! hush!"

ANOTHER GREAT MEETING IN JOHNSTON.—We learn, from a gentleman who was present, that the barbecue and Mass Meeting, at Coates', in Johnston, was a great affair.—Between 1,000 and 1,200 persons were present, including many ladies. A Seymour and Blair Club, for the immediate district, was formed, and, although the precinct went strongly Radical at the last election, 75 names were at once obtained,—a large number of whom voted the Republican ticket before.

Strong, eloquent and effective speeches were made by Dr. J. T. Leach, W. H. Avera, Esq., Jesse Ellington, Esq., and Dr. A. E. Smith.

The barbecue was bountiful and well gotten up every way. The spirit was unmistakably enthusiastic. Old Johnston is coming it with a rush, this time.

GRANT'S "ENTHUSIASTIC RECEPTION" IN WISCONSIN.

[Correspondence of the Chicago Times]

SHULLSBURG, WIS., Aug. 16.

It being known that the hero of Pittsburg Landing would pass through Scales Mound on the 8th inst., of course efforts were made to get a grand reception in that "loil" town, and they did recep. Present, the ticket agent, baggage master, post master, and last, though not least, old Joe White, the fiddlist, who, violin in hand, marched into the car playing his favorite tune:

"Old Grimes is dead, that good old man;
We ne'er shall see him more," &c.

'Rah for Grant. VERITAS.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

WILMINGTON, Del., Aug. 27.

The Democratic State Convention met at Dover yesterday and nominated Benj. T. Briggs, of Newcastle, for Congress. He was a candidate in 1862, and beaten by Geo. P. Fisher, Republican, by a small majority.

The following resolution, which was adopted by the State Convention in June, was again affirmed as one of the principles of the party:

Resolved, That the elective franchise is a political privilege and not a natural right, and is to be granted or withheld by the several States to their respective inhabitants, as, in the free, sound judgment and discretion of each State, shall be deemed best for the public interest and welfare.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., August 27.—In the case, to-day, before the Circuit Court, of Golden vs. King, in detinue for a horse, an order was read from the military Commander of the State, ordering the case to be dismissed at the cost of the plaintiff, and the Court, considering it had no alternative, had the order entered. The counsel for the plaintiff excepted to the order, and it is expected that the case will be carried to the higher court, on a mandamus to compel the judge to try the case, thus testing the constitutionality of the Reconstruction acts.

A RADICAL PRESS REPUDIATING THE CARPET-BAGGERS.—There are large delegations to the House from large Southern States that do not contain one man reputable in private life, or respectable in ability. "God only knows what we are to do with these creatures," exclaimed one of the leading members of the Republican party, and one of its most prominent Congressmen.—"They seem to be without character at home; they have not very much hope of retaining their hold on their districts after their first election; and a good many of them are sure to go in for making the most they can out of their positions while they have them." We certainly have got a very large elephant upon our hands.—Cincinnati Gazette, (Rad.)

Edwin M. Stanton was announced to take the stump in Illinois. The Radical committee squelched him, by frankly declaring that his appearance in the State would be dangerous to the party, and might be dangerous to himself.

Somebody has discovered that Joseph was the first carpet-bagger.—Standard.

This is a covert attack on Joseph Abbott. The evidence that the Standard is an enemy in the Disunion camp accumulates.—Wil. Star.

The Standard calls the Sentinel "the tack hammer." The Sentinel might retort by calling the Standard and its entire party the tax hammer.—Wil. Star.

The "Tribune" two weeks ago said Gen. Steadman had flopped over to Grant. Four days ago it published that Gen. Steadman had spoken in New Orleans for Seymour.

For the Sentinel,

THAT WATCH.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Several slight blats of disapproval have appeared in the Conservative papers, touching the participation of Conservative Senators in the compliment paid to the Lieut. Governor, at the close of the recent session. These might be readily borne in silence, as we felt sure that a little reflection would satisfy our friends, that our action, in that matter, proceeded from no other motive than a sense of the injudiciousness and disagreeableness of being in a personal snarl with those with whom we are compelled to hold official intercourse. Sapientibus verbum sat.

But, now, we observe a commendatory notice of the matter in the Standard. The praises of that sheet are too much for good men to endure; and, therefore, a word is necessary, especially, since that paper intimates, by our action in this matter, we had dismissed our bitter hatred of Radicals; and, also, takes occasion, from this text, to lecture the glorious ladies of North Carolina for their proud and proper refusal to accord social recognition to the men of the Radical party.

We are willing that the Standard and the Radicals should felicitate themselves over our condescension in treating members of their party with official and semi-official courtesy. It seems to delight them greatly.

The extraordinary fact that the Lieut. Governor, with his peculiar biliary organs, did continue in a good humor, for six entire weeks, we thought deserving of extraordinary recognition. If we could have known that this unwonted damming up of bile had only had the effect of making it stagnate, and that it was to break forth the very next day in an address, in which we were to be accused of an intention to "restore slavery," and the negroes incited to burn down our houses, steal our crops and cattle, and kill our children, we should, perhaps, have felt less thankful.

The ladies—God bless them—are right. Let them persevere. It may do for us men sometimes to exchange compliments, under flags of truce, with our bitter opponents.—But let our noble women forever scorn the upholders of that party which seeks their degradation, and which dares to prompt the untutored race among us to deeds of outrage and horror. Let our queens of the social circle continue to ban them. It is a more terrible ban than that of the Howard amendment. And let no man's disabilities be removed until he comes over to the side of decency and virtue,—even though he may wear a gold watch.

Respectfully,
A SENATOR.

From the Round Table for this Week.

THE PRESIDENCY.

If signs are to be trusted which are fast spreading exultation through the ranks of one political party, and doubts and dismay through those of the other, the chances that Horatio Seymour will be the next President of the United States are steadily on the increase. Unforeseen circumstances may undoubtedly deflect or restrain the current of popular feeling, but its present direction is unmistakable. Eight State elections will be held, however, between this time and that of the great event in November; and from their results that of the Presidential contest will probably become quite evident. Of course, should the struggle be very close in Pennsylvania and Ohio, the prognostication may be less trustworthy. But there are several States which a short time since were assigned to Grant and Colfax which even Republicans now concede to be doubtful; and should this process of mutation continue, not even the vote of either the Keystone or the Buckeye State would alone necessarily be decisive in the Republican behalf. Thus, should its opponents lose Ohio and gain Pennsylvania, or vice versa, from calculations generally accepted at this time the Seymour ticket will carry the day. Suppose, for example, the following—which now appears sufficiently plausible—to show the final result:

Seymour—Arkansas, 5; California, 5; Connecticut, 6; Delaware, 3; Georgia, 9; Indiana, 13; Kentucky, 11; Louisiana, 7; Maine, 7; Maryland, 7; Missouri, 11; Oregon, 3; Pennsylvania, 26; Wisconsin, 8.—Total, 164.

Grant—Alabama, 8; Florida, 3; Illinois, 16; Iowa, 8; Kansas, 3; Massachusetts, 12; Michigan, 8; Minnesota, 4; Nebraska, 3; New Hampshire, 5; North Carolina, 9; Ohio, 24; Rhode Island, 4; South Carolina 6; Tennessee, 10; Vermont, 5; West Virginia, 5. Total, *138.

If, on the contrary, the Republicans carry both Maine and Louisiana, or should they carry Indiana, the main result would still be unchanged.

The State elections will probably, to a considerable extent, influence each other, the floating vote always running more or less with the prevalent tide, but as the succession happens to fall encouragement is likely to be pretty evenly distributed. Thus the first State election—that of Vermont, September 1st—will of course be a Republican success. California, on the following day, will as certainly show a triumph for the Democrats. The Maine election, September 14th, will be much more interesting and significant, because it cannot be counted as a foregone conclusion. The Republican majority of 20,600 in 1866 was reduced by 16,000 votes in 1867. If the process of reduction is still going on—and this Democratic leaders sanguinely hope and strenuously claim—the Republicans may find their last year's majority of 11,600 entirely dissipated in November.—After the Maine election, comes a month which will doubtless witness the hardest work of the canvass. The four States of Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa hold their elections on the same day. Iowa will, without doubt, go for the Republican ticket; but Indiana is uncertain. Mr. Hendricks' strength is very great, but he has a majority to overcome—that of the last election of '66—of 14 000. On the other hand, Mr. Lincoln's majority in '64 was 34,000, and it remains to be seen how far the re-action has proceeded here as well as elsewhere. As regards Ohio, opinions are naturally very much divided. The wish, in political matters so potentially father to the thought, produces decided convictions that are highly antagonistic. To the impartial observer it seems suggestive enough to perceive that the Republican majority of 60,000 in 1864 was less than 30,000 in 1866, and had dwindled to 3,000 in 1867. From present appearances, the election in Pennsylvania will be closer than in any other State. As to New York, scarcely any but strong partisans now question that she will go for the Democratic candidates by a heavy majority.

*This table omits the State of Virginia, 10; Mississippi, 7; and Texas, 6.

Take the military away from the South, and radicalism there couldn't be knocked down. It couldn't stand up long enough.—Lou. Jour.

Colfax, a little over a year ago, said that "Grant had proved a failure in every capacity outside the military." Now Grant should give his opinion of Colfax.

"Loyalty"—The Radical apology for public robbery.

DIED:

On the morning of the 24th ult., Mrs. ALBINA, wife of Col. W. D. Harrison, of Nash, in the 32d year of her age, after fourteen days suffering with inflammation of the bowels, terminating with a congestive chill.

The deceased had lived a most exemplary life, and was possessed of all those amiable traits which enter into the character of a true woman. Pious, without pretension; sincere, without affectation; sympathetic and kind, without ostentation; generous and charitable to a remarkable degree, those who knew her can best remember her as a sublime picture of God's noblest work, in which were happily blended all the loveliest tints.

Painful though it be to chronicle the departure of dearest friends, the heart swells with admiration and reverence, and the soul rises to cast an eye into that world of peace and love, in contemplating the excellencies and virtues of the good and useful. As a neighbor, as a friend, as a mother, as a wife, she discharged her whole duty while living. No recollection of remissness will disturb her slumbers. Lovely spirit! rest in peace! Our loss is irreparable; thine is the reward. [COM.

TO OUR FRIENDS!

ROOMS OF CENTRAL EXECUTIVE }
COMMITTEE, Aug. 31, 1868. }

The Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Democratic and Conservative Party, in each County in the State, is requested to forward, without delay, to the Secretary of the Central Executive Committee, (Jno. C. Syme, Esq., Raleigh,) a statement of the number of Seymour and Blair Clubs in his County, together with the number of members in each Club.

He is also requested to see that a Club is established in each election precinct, and forward reports every two weeks until the election.

YOUNG MEN'S CLUB.—It has been deemed advisable to change the regular time of meeting of the Young Men's Seymour and Blair Club. The next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, and each Saturday night, thereafter, until the election.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Laundry Soap, Nice White Corn: W. H. Jones & Co.

Fertilizers, Agricultural Implements, Cider Mills and Straw Cutters: W. H. Jones & Co.

ANOTHER JUDGE ON THE STUMP.—J. M. Cloud, recently appointed a "Judge" by Holden, in the place of Darius Hercules Starbuck, resigned, made a Radical speech in Forsythe, a few days since. The nebulous man cannot be blamed so much, in view of the example set him by the Radical Supreme Court.

LINDLEY MURRAY.—"N. Paige & Co," in reviewing the article of our correspondent, "W.," thus "gives it" to old Lindley:

"The writer, however, would have maintained his dignity far better if he had not flew into a pet and fell to abusing scallawags and carpet baggers."

This is equal to hanging Charles I.

"LO! THE POOR" INDEED.—The Radicals of Johnston declare, in county meeting, for Col. J. B. Cook for Congress from this District. When carpet-baggers fall out, honest men may get their dues.

RUTHERFORD.—A correspondent, writing from this county under date of the 26th., says: "There has, apparently, never been such a reaction in this section, as is now going on."

A NEGRO BOY, only 14 years of age, killed a young negro girl, with a butcher knife, in the streets of Newbern, on Friday last.—The difficulty grew out of a dispute about one cent.

THE PARDS, generally, are justly severe upon W. A. Smith, Holden's President of the North Carolina Railroad, for his contemptible partisan administration of its affairs.

MONEY ORDERS.

My attention having been recently called to several losses of small sums of money by mail, I would take this method of again calling the attention of the Public to the fact, that it is desirable for all parties, remitting money by mail, to buy money orders, where they can be obtained, and, where they cannot, all letters containing money should be registered.

A. JOBE,
Special Agent.

SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN SWIFT CREEK.

The meeting of the Seymour and Blair Club for Swift Creek District, at Franklin's, on Friday, Aug. 28th, was addressed by Capt. J. Q. DeCarteret, Chas. M. Busbee, Esq., and M. A. Bledsoe, Esq. The speeches were calm, but forcible and convincing, and were received with repeated and enthusiastic applause.

Forty more citizens of this District came forward and registered their names as members of the Club.

The next meeting will be on Saturday, Sept. 12, at Franklin's.

W. E. PEEBLES, Secretary.

Only one member of Lincoln's original cabinet is now acting with the Grant, or Mongrel party, and that is Simon Cameron, one of the most notorious and infamous corruptionists in the United States.

A man in Mississippi proposes to bet ten sections of land, that Seymour and Blair will beat Grant and Colfax in the Presidential election.

HEADQUARTERS DISTRICT OF N. CAROLINA,
Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 23d, 1868.

General Orders, No. 1.

1. In compliance with General Orders, No. 7, from Headquarters Department of the South, dated Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 14th, 1868, the undersigned hereby assumes command of the District of North Carolina.—All orders in regard to the rendition of Reports and Returns as issued from Headquarters, Second Military District, will continue in force until otherwise ordered.

2. Bvt. Lieut. Col. Charles B. Gaskill, Captain 40th U. S. Infantry, is hereby announced as Acting Assistant Adjutant General, and will be respected and obeyed accordingly.

3. Commanding officers of the various Posts in this District will forward to these Headquarters, as soon as practicable, a roster of officers of their respective commands.

NELSON A. MILES,
Col. 40th U. S. Inf., Bvt. Maj. Gen.
Commanding District.

It will be seen, from the foregoing General Order, that Gen. Miles has formally assumed command of the "District of North Carolina."

We beg leave to call the attention of the General to the following facts, which we find in the Goldsboro' Rough Notes, of Saturday:

OUTRAGE.—On yesterday evening, about 4 o'clock, a gang of lawless negro ruffians, commonly styled "knuckled boys," while passing the Store of Mr. Wm. Robinson, adjoining our office, broke willfully, and without any provocation, several lights out of one of the Store windows. Why are such outlaws permitted to impose upon this community? Where was the police?"

ANOTHER.—The same crowd of negro soldiers, mentioned in the above, also went to the store of Messrs. Rogers & Hunter, in the lower portion of the town, where they assaulted, without having the least provocation, Mr. Rogers, who was seated in his door, at the time, reading a newspaper.—After the first assault Mr. Rogers ran into his store and behind the counter, endeavoring to get his revolver, but was knocked down again and kicked in a most shameful manner.

How much longer are the people, especially those who are peacefully pursuing their business, endeavoring to gain a living for their families, to be imposed upon by such lawless villians, who, "it is said," are sent here to protect life and property? How long! O! how long, is such a state of affairs to continue?

P. S.—Since writing the above, we learn that five of the negroes have been identified and are now under guard. We are assured that severe punishment will be dealt to them."

ANOTHER OUTRAGE.—A negro excursion party from Petersburg visited Weldon last week. On their return, and while halting at Pleasant Hill, to await the passage of the out train, they made an attempt to pull down the Seymour and Blair flag at that point, but were prevented from doing so by the interference of one or two citizens, who very quietly informed them that the first one who put his hands towards the attempt would be killed.

HOLDEN'S MILITIA IN MOTION IN HARNETT.

On Saturday last, about ninety or one hundred negroes were drilling in this County, with drum, &c. The newly appointed County Commissioner was present and acted as officer of the day! Sandy Akins, (negro,) was duly elected Captain by the Company, and commissioned, as I suppose, by the County Commissioner. While in camp, near the public road, I learn from a gentleman, who was passing, they had sentinels posted, but he was allowed to pass the highway.

Late in the afternoon, they went into Committee of the Whole,—Ben Barby, (negro,) upon the stump—subject considered, Judge Buxton and Harnett Superior Court. I learn that Judge Buxton was abused by the orator in bitter terms,—the newly appointed County Commissioner acting as Secretary to the shameful proceedings.

Harnett, so long noted for her quietude, has become the place for the first public meeting to denounce one of the best Judges and threaten public resistance to the laws—laws of their own making. I allude to the negroes and scallawags, for the Democrats are law abiding people, and are willing to submit to the laws, until their grievances are remedied at the ballot-box.

Radical stock is sinking every day in Harnett. The cry is "Seymour, Blair and Peace." HARNETT.

TOURNAMENT.

MORGANTON, N. C., Aug. 27, 1868.

Messrs. Editors:—Feeling that la grande affaire, commonly called a Tournament, that "came off" in our mountain embosomed village, on Tuesday, the 25th, is worthy of note, I have determined to give to the readers of the Sentinel a brief procès verbal of that most pleasant entertainment.

About 11 o'clock, there was a large audience of brave men and fair women, reinforced by a delegation of "South mountaineers," male and female, little and big, old and young. Judging from the "music by the entire band," (which, mirabile dictu, elicited no "loud applause in the gallery,") the latter were in the majority. Scallawags, too, both white and black, were seen to pierce on (Pearson) through the crowd to the front, so that it was no small assembly that greeted the chivalrous members of the Knighthood, as they came thundering by on their dancing, prancing steeds, under the command of Capt. S. S. K and Mr. P. D. W., than whom two finer looking, more energetic Marshals could not have been selected.

The Knights, nineteen in number, handsomely dressed, mounted on beautiful steeds, gaily caparisoned, were greeted with cheers from the gentlemen and smiles from the ladies. The spot selected was a well chosen one, and beneath the spreading branches of the mighty 'King of the Forest,' a rude platform had been erected for the orator of the day, who now took his stand, and the audience listened with pleasure and attention throughout to a brief, intelligent, chivalrous speech, addressed to them by our youthful, promising orator, W. W. F., of McDowell. The riding then commenced, and the following is the programme:

J. G. B., Knight of Morganton—steed scrub—was gracefully attired in a costume simple and characteristic, consisting of dusty boots, rusty pants, faded coat and worn hat, yet looked and rode well, notwithstanding.

C. F. M., Knight of the Snow-drift, mounted on a milk white steed—Beauty—was arrayed in a costume at once appropriate, beautiful and decidedly becoming.

The black velvet suits worn by G. P. E., Knight of the Castle; J. C. D., Knight of Hotspur; G. L. P., Knight of Slim Chance, (Query—or slim chance of a knight—no?); B. H., Knight of McDowell, and S. H. E., Knight of "Land We Love," were decidedly the handsomest on the field, and showed off to the best advantage the graceful, skillful riders who wore them.

R. W. M., Knight of the Southern Cross, was tastefully dressed, and, being an admirable equestrian, should have gained the ring, by all means, but it was carried off by his brother, Paul Means, Knight of the Raven Plume, who looked well, rode well, and spoke well.

J. H., of McDowell, Knight of the Lost Cause, earnestly endeavored to regain it, but fickle fortune deserted the brave, and the cause was irretrievably lost.

F. J. C., Knight of the Forest, was appropriately and becomingly dressed, and emulated the example of the renowned Robin Hood in riding, but, like his predecessor, Mr. J. H., (not Robin,) was deserted by the fair goddess and gained—nothing.

Mr. G. Moore, Knight of the West, rode remarkably well, dashed through, cutting off both heads and taking the ring the first time. That was all—

"Simply that and nothing more."

J. G. Y., Knight of the Lone Star, was becomingly dressed in blue and white, and proved to the gratification of all that he was not a lone a young star in riding, but in cutting off the heads and taking the ring. The former he did twice. The latter, how many? None.

W. P. Blair, (no relation of Francis,) Knight of Buncombe, did that noble county credit, but was unsuccessful.

L. Weaver, Knight of ——, proved conclusively that he had attained great skill in riding, but, owing to some unfortunate circumstance, "went up," in a web of his own weaving.

J. S. D., Knight of the Garter, and W. W., Knight of Ivanhoe, are certainly entitled to much credit.

Capt. W. F. A., Knight of Harry of Navarre, proved himself to be a skilful rider, but withdrew on account of an ungovernable horse.

J. L. C., Knight of Dixie, was appropriately dressed in a gray suit, and flying from his Dixie cap was a small Confederate banner, unfurled to the broad breeze of Heaven, which was heartily greeted as it floated by in all its beauty and glory, carrying conviction to every heart that Southern Chivalry still existed, and that there was "life in the old land yet."

J. G. B, Knight of Morganton, non obstante his dust and rust, was the victorious Knight, and showed his excellent taste, (or it might have been a matter of feeling with him,) by crowning Miss H. E., Queen of Love and Beauty, a worthy Queen of both.

J. S. D., Knight of the Garter, crowned Miss F. H., of Lexington, who, en passant, seems to have taken quite a Holt on his admiration, 1st. Maid of Honor.

C. F. McK., Knight of the Snowdrift, carried off the third distinction, and was perfectly right (wright?) on the occasion, in crowning Miss L. W., of Wilmington, 2nd Maid of Honor.

Y. Moore, Knight of the West, seemed determined to lose or win, (Er-win) and triumphantly crowned Miss M. E., than whom a better selection could not have been made.

A second Coronation was suggested. P. B. M., Knight of Raven Plume, was successful and crowned Miss L. T. W., Queen of the evening.

At 5 o'clock, riding ceased, Tournament was over, and the delighted audience dispersed,—the gentlemen to obtain a little rest, and the ladies to "prink," to use a feminine expression, for the ball.

The dancing commenced about 10 o'clock, and lasted without apparent fatigue until three in the morning.

To the ladies of the Presbyterian Church we tender our sincere thanks for the elegant supper—an entertainment fit for the gods.

In the words of Glover, one of the sons of song:

"The music, the dancing, the whole was divine."

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31, P. M.

S. F. Gore, member of Congress from Georgia, appeals for a September session of Congress.

Georgia letters state that the Legislature will probably adjourn before deciding the eligibility of negroes. Also that movements are on foot to heal dissensions in the Republican ranks.

Revenue, to-day, $800,000.

In response to Southern Radicals, who appeal, personally, for arms for the Southern militia, the President said:

"The Federal troops are in a better condition to preserve the peace than a militia drawn from one party to make war upon the other."

The President delays his visit to Tennessee until the question of the September session is settled.

DISTURBANCE IN WILSON COUNTY.

WILMINGTON, Aug. 31, P. M.

A difficulty occurred in Wilson County, on Saturday, between Zeno H. Green, (white,) and Davie Ruffin, (colored,) in which the latter was shot and slightly wounded in the leg. Green was arrested and bound over to the Superior Court.

Afterwards, Bill Grimes, President of the Union League, made a long, violent and incendiary speech to the negroes from the Court House steps. He and other negroes used threatening language, and urged the burning of houses and killing of whites. About 11 o'clock that night, Green's barn was discovered to be on fire, but he and his family were afraid to venture out of the house, for fear of being murdered.—The negro, Grimes, was seen near the barn just before the fire. He was arrested, tried before a magistrate, his guilt established, and, in default of three hundred dollars security, was sent to jail.

The community is greatly excited, but it is hoped that no further disturbance will occur.

FROM SOUTH CAROLINA—GOV. SCOTT OPPOSED TO ALL ARMED ORGANIZATIONS.

COLUMBIA, Aug. 31, P. M.

Motions were introduced into the Legislature, to-day, looking to adjournment. The Governor issued a Circular, to-day, relative to armed organizations, and introducing arms into the State. He disapproves of both, and calls upon all persons to keep the peace. He says that he will exercise all of his authority for that purpose.

GRAND DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION.

NEW ORLEANS, Aug. 31, P. M.

A moderate estimate places the number of persons in the Democratic procession, on Saturday night, at fifteen thousand, of whom twenty-five hundred were mounted. The oration continued till after midnight. The police records fail to show a single arrest, more than usual, though one hundred thousand persons were on the streets, at once.

FROM GEORGIA—THE LEGISLATURE.

ATLANTA, Aug 31, P. M.

The Senate unanimously passed a resolution authorizing the Governor to issue a proclamation disbanding armed associations throughout the State. Armed negroes in bands exist throughout the State. In one county they have resisted the Sheriff.

HAVING BEEN APPOINTED, BY THE AMERICAN AGRICULTURAL AND MINERAL LAND COMPANY, Agent for all that part of North Carolina lying east of and including Catawba County, I am authorized to say, to any person or persons having 2,000 acres in one body, partially cleared and near a Rail Road, that if they will agree to subdivide their lands at the expense of the Company the Company will purchase alternate lots at their assessed value for taxation to be ascertained by two disinterested parties, paying for the same in the Company's stock—the Company obligating itself to place a white settler on every 100 acres, so acquired, within three years, or, failing to do so, such land unsettled to revert to the original owner; the owner to retain possession until the land is settled.

The object of this system is to bring into the State as industrious and thrifty population and to enhance the value of our lands. It has been adopted in other states and is said to be working finely.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

NO EXTRA CHARGE FOR FEMALE RISKS.

OF NEW YORK.

Office, No. 69, Liberty Street.

The Original Joint Stock Life Insurance Company in the United States.

The Business of this Company is exclusively confined to the Insurance of First Class, healthy lives.

The Distinctive Feature

Of the STOCK system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium, for stated sums insured, which is immediate, sure and certain, in lieu of a high rate of premium and promised dividend, which is distant, contingent and uncertain—this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance.

☞ The premiums charged by the "UNIVERSAL" are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the Mutual Companies.

The "UNIVERSAL" desires to call the particular attention of Agents and others to the new "Return Premium Table," which has been prepared by the Actuary of the Company. It will be noticed that these Rates average less than the ordinary rates charged by Mutuals. The inducements offered by this table are equal to a reversionary dividend of one hundred per cent. of all premiums paid.

Rates to Secure $1,000 at Death, with a Return of all Premiums paid.

AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.	AGE.	Ordinary Life Rate.	Ten Payments Rate.
25	$19.49	$27.49	45	$33.48	$79.18
30	23.50	43.10	50	74.37	104.27

40	29.07	62.44	60	163.21	201.07

Example. A man aged 30 insures his life for $1,000, and pays 43.10 per annum on the 10 payment plan, and dies after having paid five annual payments, or $215,50, his policy will be good for $1,215.50.

NON-FORFEITING CASH RATES

OF THE

ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,

OF HARTFORD, CONN.

ASSETS, $10,000,000

DIVIDEND, Fifty per Cent.

$130 to pay every 100 of Liabilities.

$7,000 Members, and constantly increasing.

DESCRIPTION OF POLICIES.

First.—Whole Life Policies.

Second.—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

AGES.

Insurance will be granted at all ages from fifteen to sixty years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term; or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the published rates, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made, the dividends will always be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a percentage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby, will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

This system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

NON-FORFEITURE RULES.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payments, as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends then accumulated, will purchase, taken as a single net premium upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the assurance continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy shall be forfeited by an exposure of the assured life in violation of the conditions expressed therein, unless death shall occur UNDER OR IN CONSEQUENCE of such exposure, when the full Cash Value of the Policy, together with all accumulations from dividends, will be paid upon its surrender.

INCREASE OF INSURANCE.

Applications to increase the sum insured on any life will always be considered as applications for new insurance and, therefore, no increase of insurance will be granted unless the unimpaired condition of the assured life shall have been proved by medical re-examination.

THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION!

THE PLATFORM.

"The Democratic party, in national convention assembled, reposing its trust in the intelligence, patriotism, and discriminating justice of the people, standing upon the Constitution as the foundation and limitation of the powers of the Government, and the guaranty of the liberties of the citizen, and recognizing the questions of slavery and secession as having been settled, for all time to come, by the war or the voluntary action of the Southern States in constitutional conventions assembled, and never to be renewed or reagitated, do, with the return of peace, demand:

First.—Immediate restoration of all the States to their rights in the Union, under the Constitution, and of civil government to the American people.

Second.—Amnesty for all past political offences, and the regulation of the elective franchise in the States by their citizens.

Third.—Payment of the public debt of the United States as rapidly as practicable; all moneys drawn from the people by taxation, except so much as is requisite for the necessities of the Government, economically administered, being honestly applied to such payment, and where the obligations of the Government do not expressly state upon their face, or the law under which they were issued does not provide that they shall be paid in coin, they ought, in right and in justice, to be paid in the lawful money of the United States.

Fourth.—Equal taxation of every species of property according to its real value, including Government bonds and other public securities.

Fifth.—One currency for the Government and the people, the laborer and the office-holder, the pensioner and the soldier, the producer and the bondholder.

Sixth.—Economy in the administration of the Government; the reduction of the standing army and navy; the abolition of the Freedmen's Bureau (great cheering) and all political instrumentalities designed to secure negro supremacy; simplification of the system and discontinuance of inquisitorial modes of assessing and collecting internal revenue, so that the burden of taxation may be equalized and lessened, the credit of the Government and the currency made good; the repeal of all enactments for enrolling the State militia into national forces in time of peace; and a tariff for revenue upon foreign imports, and such equal taxation under the internal revenue laws as will afford incidental protection to domestic manufactures, and as will, without impairing the revenue, impose the least burden upon and best promote and encourage the great industrial interests of the country.

Seventh.—Reform of abuses in the Administration, the expulsion of corrupt men from office, the abrogation of useless offices, the restoration of rightful authority to and the independence of the executive and judicial departments of the Government, the subordination of the military to the civil power, to the end that the usurpations of Congress and the despotism of the sword may cease.

Eighth.—Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign Powers, and furnish an example and encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty, and individual rights; and the maintenance of the rights of naturalized citizens against the absolute doctrine of immutable allegiance and the claims of foreign Powers to punish them for alleged crime committed beyond their jurisdiction.

In demanding these measures and reforms we arraign the Radical party for its disregard of right, and the unparalleled oppression and tyranny which have marked its career. After the most solemn and unanimous pledge of both Houses of Congress to prosecute the war exclusively for the maintenance of the Government and the preservation of the Union under the Constitution, it has repeatedly violated that most sacred pledge, under which alone was rallied that noble volunteer army which carried our flag to victory.

Instead of restoring the Union, it has, so far as is in its power, dissolved it, and subjected ten States, in time of profound peace, to military despotism and negro supremacy.

It has nullified there the right of trial by jury; it has abolished the habeas corpus, that most sacred writ of liberty; it has overthrown the freedom of speech and the press; it has substituted arbitrary seizures and arrests, and military trials and secret star-chamber inquisitions for the constitutional tribunals; it has disregarded in time of peace the right of the people to be free from searches and seizures; it has entered the post and telegraph offices, and even the private rooms of individuals, and seized their private papers and letters without any specific charge or notice of affidavit, as required by the organic law; it has converted the American capitol into a bastile; it has established a system of spies and official espionage to which no constitutional monarchy of Europe would dare to resort; it has abolished the right of appeal on important constitutional questions to the supreme judicial tribunal, and threatens to curtail or destroy its original jurisdiction, which is irrevocably vested by the Constitution, while the learned Chief Justice has been subjected to the most atrocious calumnies merely because he would not prostitute his high office to the support of the false and partisan charges preferred against the President. Its corruption and extravagance have exceeded anything known in history, and by its frauds and monopolies it has nearly doubled the burden of the debt created by the war. It has stripped the President of his constitutional power of appointment even of his own Cabinet. Under its repeated assaults the pillars of the Government are rocking on their base, and should it succeed in November next, and inaugurate its President, we will meet, as a subjected and conquered people, amid the ruins of liberty and the scattered fragments of the Constitution; and we do declare and resolve that ever since the people of the United States threw off all subjection to the British Crown, the privilege and trust of suffrage have belonged to the several States, and have been granted, regulated, and controlled exclusively by the political power of each State respectively, and that any attempt by Congress, on any pretext whatever, to deprive any State of this right, or to interfere with its exercise, is a flagrant usurpation of power which can find no warrant in the Constitution; and if sanctioned by the people will subvert our form of government, and can only end in a single centralized and consolidated Government, in which the separate existence of the States will be entirely absorbed, and an unqualified despotism be established in place of a federal union of co equal States; and that we regard the reconstruction acts (so called) of Congress as usurpations, and unconstitutional, revolutionary, and void; that our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory against a most gallant and determined foe, must ever be gratefully remembered, and all the guarantees given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

That the public lands should be distributed as widely as possible among the people, and should be disposed of either under the pre emption or homestead laws, and sold in reasonable quantities, and to none but actual occupants, at the minimum price established by the Government. When grants of the public lands may be allowed necessary for the encouragement of important public improvements, the proceeds of the sale of such lands, and not the lands themselves, should be so applied.

That the President of the United States, Andrew Johnson, (applause,) in exercising the power of his high office in resisting the aggressions of Congress upon the constitutional rights of the States and the people, is entitled to the gratitude of the whole American people, and in behalf of the Democratic party we tender him our thanks for his patriotic efforts in that regard."

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS FOR CLUBS.

We have received letters from several sources, requesting us to send printed copies of a Constitution and By-Laws for the organization of Seymour and Blair Clubs.—Having none on hand, and no funds to print them, we have prepared the following Constitution and By-Laws, as a guide for Clubs, and submit them to the consideration of our friends. They were submitted to the Young Men's meeting to form a Seymour and Blair Club, in this city, on Tuesday night, and unanimously adopted:

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE 1st. This Association shall be styled the ——— Club of ——— of North Carolina.

ART. 2. The objects of this Association are as follows: To unite in close political compact every Democrat, Conservative, or by whatever name known, in North Carolina, for the support and defence of the Constitution of the United States; the promotion of the peace and good will of society and the harmony of the Union; the proper enforcement of law and order by legitimate forms, and the utter destruction of Radicalism every where, by the election of HORATIO SEYMOUR, of New York, as President, and FRANCIS P. BLAIR, of Missouri, as Vice President, and all other Democratic and Conservative nominees for any office; and, further, to promote the mutual benefit and protection of each other in all lawful pursuits, aiding each other in business, as being members of one great political family, seeking to promote each other's welfare, and especially to extend such aid to those who have been or may be ignored or proscribed by the Radical party, as the Association may be able.

ART. 3. The officers of this Club shall consist of a President, three Vice Presidents, a Recording Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, who shall perform the duties usual in such offices, and who, together with Five Directors, shall be elected annually at the annual meeting of the Association, and shall constitute an Executive Board, to whom shall be committed the interests of the Club.

ART. 4. This Constitution, and such By-Laws or Regulations as the Club may adopt, may be altered, amended or changed at any public meeting of the Club, by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

SUBSCRIPTION.

We, whose names are hereto annexed, do solemnly pledge our word and sacred honor, constantly and faithfully to promote the objects and aims of this Club as set forth in the foregoing Constitution, and do hold ourselves ready to defend the same, and to protect, to the extent of our ability, every member of this Association throughout the State.

BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1. Every member of this Club shall sign and subscribe the Constitution, in order to recognition.

2. All monied contributions to the objects of the Association shall be voluntary, and shall be held by the Treasurer, who shall keep an exact account and disburse the same only on the order of the Executive Board, to whom he shall submit his accounts when ordered.

3. The Club shall order its public meetings when and where it chooses, and the President may call meetings when desirable, but the Executive Board, or such of its members as may be designated, shall select speakers and make all necessary arrangements.

4. Each member of the Executive Board is hereby appointed a Committee to solicit names for membership, also, special donations for the objects of the Club, and to attend to the general interests of the Club, such as directing the correspondence, procuring and circulating documents, &c.

5. The Executive Board shall meet to transact the private business of the Club as often as it may order, (and the officers of the Club shall be ex-officio officers of the Board,) when the names of members shall be presented for registration or dismissal for good cause, to consider the financial business of the Club, and such other private matters as may be necessary. All members of the Club may attend the private meetings of the Board when convenient, and may give counsel, but the business of the Board will be determined by the vote of the Board itself.

6. Any member of the Club intending to move to any other section, may obtain a certificate of his membership in this Club, if he desire it, to be signed by the President and Secretary.

7. The Executive Board of each Club will give special attention to all matters of registration, voting, &c., to see that all do their duty, and that the law is strictly observed, that all fraud or mal-practice is detected and duly punished.

REMARKS.

1. In South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi and other Southern States, strong Democratic Clubs are being formed, composed of colored citizens. The Constitution above is so worded that it can be adapted to any place or persons. If Democratic Clubs can be formed entirely of colored persons, perhaps it will be best; but where there are few, the Clubs may decide to enter them on their registers or not, as they may elect.

2. We would suggest that Young Men's Clubs, everywhere, should embrace all young men, from 18 years of age, and upwards. Many old men are faint-hearted, timid, afraid to let people know their political status. Take in the young men, who have the pluck, and who may be educated to love the Constitution and the country, and who will always vote right, when they become of age. We need the ardor and boldness of youth, as well as the prudence and wisdom of age. The necessity for this, however, would be obviated, if the young men, under the age of 21, would form Clubs of their own.

3. We insist upon forming Clubs in every Ward, in every precinct and Captain's District in the State, where 25 or 30 members, and as many more as possible, can be obtained. The more the better. The talent and energy of all our people must be brought out. It will not do to let the old men and the old party managers do all the managing and the talking. We must put every man in some position to be useful. By having a Club in every Ward and every neighborhood, we can find room for a great many as officers and talkers and working men. We can have our Club meetings out of doors, there pleasant nights, by moonlight or camp fires, and there will be a chance for every man, who can make a talk, or a little speech, or a great speech, to do something in that line. Let the Clubs be formed. Bring out all our men to work for the Constitution and the country, and let us save them by the election of Seymour and Blair!

SEVERAL months ago, I purchased the entire stock of goods owned by BRANSON, FARRAR & CO., and continued the business, changing the name afterwards to Branson & Jones, advertising myself as Proprietor and Mr. Branson as Agent for the N. C. Business Directory.—But as some persons seem erroneously, to consider it a partnership, or to blend the interest of the former firm with my own, I shall henceforth conduct the business under my own name alone, unless some partner should be taken hereafter. Mr. Branson will continue to be General Agent for the N. C. Directory, which will necessarily engage most of his time and attention.

I shall be pleased to furnish our friends and the public with BOOKS, STATIONERY, SHEET MUSIC and other articles in our line, at lowest cash prices.
